

May Center Report – November 2020

Open Space and Regional Park Commission Meeting

May Museum Report

HIGHLIGHTS

- ◆ The Museum was a polling place for the general election on November 3. Though it was a busy site, there were no problems reported.
- ◆ The Museum opened “Cloth as Community: Hmong Textiles in America,” a traveling exhibition of fiber works. This static, non-interactive exhibition will be on display until January.
- ◆ The Museum opened “Variations on a Theme,” an exhibition of paintings from Sierra Watercolor Society. This show & sale will be at the museum until mid-December.
- ◆ The Museum partnered with Raise the Future for a “Comfort a Kid” holiday collection drive. Through the end of the year, the museum will collect blankets, stuffed animals, slippers, and towels for foster children in Nevada.

UPCOMING

- ◆ Nothing for December. Limited events planned due to pandemic.
